

Clas101 Review Crossword - Commerce, Economy, Philosophy and Psychology

1		2	3					4			5			6		7
		41														13
8							11											14
		9
		10									12
						17					18
15			16								19	20				21		22
											43
			23				24		25							27
42											26
															30
		28		29
		31	34										32
33
										38			39
35		36
				37										40

Down

1. Word meaning “fear of the ocean”.
2. A thought; from the Greek word meaning “to see”.
3. A person who performs duties for another; from the Latin word meaning “slave”.
4. The Latin word for “I”.
5. An extreme or irrational fear.
6. A word used to describe missiles or other projectiles; from the Greek word meaning “to throw”.
7. Greek prefix for our furry feline friends.
11. Chromosome comes from the Greek words meaning _____ and “body”.
14. The Greek word for “to sell”.
16. The eco in economy is ultimately derived from the Greek oikos, meaning _____.
17. Word meaning farming, from the Latin for “field” and “cultivation”.
18. Latin word for a hated monarchical ruler; where English gets “regal”.
20. Greek philosopher known for his “theory of forms”.
21. The Anglo-Saxon word for “controversy” (it’s in chapter one!”
22. The Latin word for “slave”; also, the Austrian way of saying “goodbye”.
24. Adjective describing someone who only thinks about themselves; from the Latin word for “I”.
25. Greek philosopher famous for his dialectic method and his untimely death.
28. Latin prefix meaning “through”, or “for each”.
30. A friendship ending, business-themed board game; from the Greek word meaning “one” and “to sell”.
33. A head-thrashing offshoot of rock music; from the Greek word meaning “mine”.
34. Roman numeral 20.
36. Latin prefix meaning “together”.
39. Greek word meaning “ship” – not to be confused with navis!

Across

1. Fear of the number 13.
8. Latin word meaning “field”.
9. Latin prefix meaning “bird”.
10. Word meaning “the study of being or existence”.
11. Your teacher’s favorite 1980 TV show hosted by astrophysicist Carl Sagan; from the Greek word meaning “well-ordered”.
12. Greek philosopher and renaissance man known for his empiricism.
13. Latin word for “it”; in Freudian psychology often paired with the ego.
15. Greek pre-Socratic philosopher known for his fascination with ratios and restrictive diet.
19. Greek philosopher who sought to free people from the fear of death and whose theories were immortalized by the Roman poet Lucretius.
23. Another word for the Cosmos; from the Latin words meaning “one” and “turn”.
26. The Greek philosopher Democritus believed in this invisible, inseparable particle.
27. Verbum is the Latin word for _____.
29. Greek mythological character whose name is used for the female version of the Oedipus complex.
31. Latin prefix meaning “out of”.
32. Latin word meaning “end, boundary”.
33. The Latin root of Mercury, merchandise and commerce.
35. Greek word meaning “skill, craft or art”.
37. Latin word for “purse”.
38. Word meaning “to free”; from the Latin words for “out of” and “hand”.
40. An ascetic philosopher who shuns luxury and political participation and promotes individual freedom and self-dependence; named after the Greek word for “dog”.
41. Latin prefix meaning “down” or “away from”.
42. Greek word for “cow”; first half of the word for an eating disorder.
43. The number 40; or what you might see on a very large t-shirt.

