

Quiz 3 Overview

SECTION ONE: COMMERCE AND ECONOMICS MATCHING

10 QUESTIONS, 1 PT EA - 10 PTS

You will be given 12 definitions and asked to match them with 10 commerce and economy based terms or concepts from chapter 7 or the homework.

SECTION TWO: PHILOSOPHY/PSYCHOLOGY MATCHING

10 QUESTIONS, 1 PT EA - 10 PTS

You will be given 12 definitions and asked to match them with 10 philosophical or psychological terms or concepts from chapter 8 and the homework.

SECTION THREE: PHILIAS AND PHOBIAS

6 QUESTIONS, 2 PTS EA - 12 PTS

You will be asked to complete a sentence using the correct phobia/philia from the word bank.

Ex.

bibliophilia	arachnophobia	homophonophobia
---------------------	----------------------	------------------------

Even the smallest spider causes Randy to shriek and jump on the nearest chair; I think Randy has

_____.

SECTION FOUR: ANALYZE AND DEFINE

12 QUESTIONS, 3 PTS EA - 36 PTS

You must break the underlined terms or concepts below into their components and define the meaning of each part. Then, using your breakdown of the word AND the context which the sentence provides, select the best dictionary definition of each from the four provided choices.

Ex.

Because Julia is interested in the origins of the universe, she decided to learn about cosmology.

Component(s) and meaning(s): cosmos, the universe

Component(s) and meaning(s): -logy, the study of

Best definition:

- a) The study of Carl Sagan's 1980 television series.
- b) The study of the universe and its origins.
- c) The study of cosmetics.
- d) The study of the magazine Cosmo.

SECTION FIVE: THE PHILOSOPHERS

6 QUESTIONS, 2 PTS EA - 12 PTS

You will be given 6 multiple choice questions regarding Greek philosophers and their philosophies.

Ex.

Democritus was a pre-Socratic philosopher famous for:

- a) His belief that all men are created equal
- b) His firm vegetarianism
- c) The theory that all things are created from 4 main elements.
- d) The theory that all things are made up of invisible, indivisible particles he called “atoms”.